

How to access BBC Bitesize Daily (TV sessions)

BBC Bitesize Daily is a 20 minute session to provide exciting learning inspiration and opportunities. These sessions are available from 9am each day.

This can be accessed on your TV through the red button on your remote or BBC iPlayer. These can only be accessed on your TV if you have a TV with a set top box that has internet access.

Turn the TV on to a BBC channel

Press the red button on your remote

Scroll across and click on Bitesize

Choose the age group required (5-7 year olds)

This will take you directly to the daily session

It is important to remember that these sessions are aimed at children from the age of 5-7 so covering year 1 and 2. This may mean that some of the learning they do is more challenging or they may find it quite easy. However, it is a great opportunity for recapping learning and practising what you know.

BBC Bitesize lessons

Along with these you can also access BBC Bitesize lessons on the internet.

These are slightly different and can be found on the BBC Bitesize website online.

Choose your child's year group and you will be able to access a daily literacy, maths and one other subject.

This provides short videos and games that help aid understanding and develop skills.

Any questions please email your child's teacher or ring school between 9:30 and 2:30 Monday-Friday.
