Home Learning newsletter

W.C: 6.7.2020

Hello! We can't believe it is July already. It has been great to see some of your smiling faces and see you working hard at school. Those who aren't here at school you are doing a great job of learning at home, don't forget to keep emailing us.

We know that lots of you are starting to think about next year. We know it can be really hard when you are used to things being a certain way, but change is a good thing. Here is a story about a 'Cautious Caterpillar' https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-zcqzXFG_nq He needed to learn that change isn't a bad thing and nothing to be scared of. Why not have a look on your new school's website and see what you can find out about your new school!

There has also been an exciting development on the website. If you click on this link you will see some of the teachers showing us some new skills, setting some challenges and sharing some stories. Enjoy!

Please continue to email us weekly, as we are here to help support you during this home learning experience.

Daily English...

Please continue to watch the phonic videos daily. This half term, the sounds have restarted but there are new words for each sound. There is also a spelling video each day to link with the sound taught. Please click on the appropriate set for link, all links will be available all day:

Set 1 sound

Set 2 sounds

Set 3 sounds

For children who are now confident with all Sets 1, 2 and 3, there is now a new video each day to look at longer words and words that can't be sounded out (red words).

Read longer words
